Dear Parishioners:

As part of Bishop DiMarzio's Diocesan Strategic Planning process each parish is requested to share the sacramental activity, the engagement of its people in ministries and parish organizations and the financial information with its members next weekend. This information will be included in the bulletin and I will also share the annual offertory collections beginning with the year 2000.

The Bishop's thinking is that every parish should be aware of the trends that are taking place so that as much information can be shared to make for more informed discussions.

Our parish trustees, our Parish Pastoral Council and our Parish Finance Council will meet together on Tuesday of this week to discuss various aspects of the Pastoral Letter.

Needless to say, your prayers are requested for this time of intense study that is being conducted in every parish of the diocese.

The Church is celebrating the feasts of two great saints this week who have definite connections with our diocesan self study.

St. Patrick was an evangelizer - a missionary and we, as members of the Diocese of Brooklyn, have to take our baptismal vocation seriously and reach out to others: non-Catholics and baptized Catholics alike. We need St. Patrick's missionary zeal.

St. Joseph was declared Patron of the Universal Church in 1870 by Pope Leo XIII. We must "go to Joseph" with our petitions for the reconfiguration of our diocese so that we'll be able to serve the Church and its mission as effectively as possible.

Both Patrick and Joseph made Christ the center of their lives and we can do no less.

Let's pray for each other,
Msgr. Kevin Noone

RC DIOCESE OF BROOKLYN

The Diocese has launched a new website to keep all parishioners up to date on Christ Jesus, Our Hope – the Diocesan Strategic Planning process.

The website is www.ChristJesusOurHope.org. The site contains information relevant to the current process, including a text of the Bishop's Pastoral Letter, provides answers to some frequently asked questions that parishioners may have about the process and provides a forum for you to submit your questions and thoughts. As the process continues, you are encouraged to check this site for up to date information regarding the planning process and the changes happening in our Church.
